Western Springs, IL - Date: March 10, 2021

The Western Springs Police Department Detective Division is investigating a suspicious incident that occurred between approximately 5:45 PM and 6:15 PM, on Tuesday, March 9, 2021, in the Field Park neighborhood.

The incident involved an older white, four-door sedan, (possibly a 2000-2008 Toyota), occupied by an unknown male, late 20's to early 30's, with a dark, scruffy beard. According to one witness, the vehicle had only one functioning headlight. A second witness described the male as possibly being Hispanic.

During the incident, the above-described vehicle followed a young girl for approximately three blocks, traveling south on the 3900 block of Linden Ave, west on the 200 block of 40th St, and south on the 4000 block of Clausen Ave. The vehicle was last seen traveling south in the 4100 block of Clausen Ave. The unknown male did not make contact with the girl.

Safety Tips for When Walking

- Be alert and aware of your surroundings.
- Walk with someone else, whenever possible.
- Always carry a cellular telephone (if possible).
- Avoid dark, vacant, or deserted areas; use well-lit routes.

The Western Springs Police has increased its patrol activity and visibility and will continue to closely monitor this incident.
